

2023 Summer Literacy Activity

This summer all elementary students are being asked to read one book. The One School, One Book title that all elementary school students will be reading this summer is The Magical Yet by Angela DiTerlizzi. When we return in the fall, we will celebrate our thoughts, questions and wonderings about this book.

Please complete the one required activity and return it on the first day of school.

Happy Reading!!

After reading the book, students get to draw their own Magical Yet on the pennant.

Student writes his/her name here.

Student draws his/her Magical Yet here. You can also let your students write down what he/she cannot do yet but would like to be able to do someday.
